Wide Selection of Manufacturing Equipment up for Auction on Liquidity Services Marketplace www.Go-Dove.com

BETHESDA, Md., Aug. 08, 2019 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Husqvarna Group has contracted Liquidity Services (NASDAQ: LQDT) to conduct an online auction for retired manufacturing equipment as Husqvarna exits its McRae, GA manufacturing facility. The sale is a large effort to promote sustainable practices and extend the life of the manufacturing equipment by selling to other manufacturers of outdoor power equipment or other similar products. The equipment sale includes over 25 Komatsu, Clearing, Version, Danly and Niagara presses with supporting feeders, cradles and related peripherals. Interested buyers will have the opportunity to bid on over 100 items via Liquidity Services' online marketplace www.Go-Dove.com.

"Liquidity Services has a proven track record when it comes to surplus-asset services in the manufacturing industry, promoting sustainable asset disposition practices and maximizing cost avoidance of asset disposition," said Jim Moore, vice president of manufacturing at Husqvarna Group. "We are confident that their deep experience and global buyer base will support our goals to extend the lifecycle of all our products and equipment as we exit our facility in McRae."

Auction bidding is currently open until Monday, September 18, 2019 at 5pm ET at Liquidity Services' online marketplace www.Go-Dove.com. Please visit the auction webpage for more details and to sign up for the event.

"This auction is a great opportunity for other manufacturers to obtain manufacturing equipment quickly and easily through our Go-Dove marketplace as Husqvarna exits its factory in McRae," said Chris Register, vice president of corporate services for Liquidity Services.
