

Liquidity Services Named a Finalist for World Sustainability Awards

September 13, 2022

A Record Number of 153 Entries Competed in 11 Categories This Year

BETHESDA, Md., Sept. 13, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Liquidity Services (Nasdaq:LQDT), a leading global commerce company powering the circular economy, has been selected as a finalist for the World Sustainability Awards 2022, Circular Economy category. The award recognizes an organization leading the way to a more environmentally sound future, going above and beyond integrating sustainability into its core business practices.

"Sustainability is built into every facet of our organization, and we're proud of the work we've been doing for more than 22 years," said Liquidity Services CEO Bill Angrick. "It is indeed an honor to be recognized for our efforts as one of the world's top companies committed to making a positive difference in the world."

Liquidity Services has built transparent, innovative and highly effective marketplaces and integrated services that connect buyers and sellers of surplus assets across the globe. The company serves the world's largest organizations in every major sector of the economy with the design and management of large-scale investment recovery programs that support important sustainability and financial goals. Through its e-commerce marketplace platform, technology tools and services, Liquidity Services empowers global organizations to achieve zero waste solutions for surplus and scrap items previously discarded, including both finished goods and capital equipment.

Winners will be announced at the World Sustainability Awards 2022 in Munich, Germany on October 13, 2022. For more information or to register to attend the ceremony, visit the World Sustainability Leaders event page.
