

William Angrick, Chairman and CEO of LSI Named Finalist for Ernst & Young Entrepreneur of the Year 2005 Award

June 21, 2005

Washington, D.C. (June 21, 2005) — William Angrick of Liquidity Services, Inc. was named a finalist by professional services firm Ernst & Young LLP for the Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year 2005 Awards in the Greater Washington Area. Mr. Angrick was selected from sixty-three nominations in the Greater Washington Area by a panel of independent judges comprised of area business leaders. Award recipients will be announced at the awards banquet on June 23, 2005 at The Ritz-Carlton, Tysons Corner, in McLean, Virginia.

"I am honored that myself and Liquidity Services, Inc. have been selected by Ernst & Young as a finalist for this prestigious award," said Mr. Angrick. "In five years, LSI has risen as a global leader in our industry because of the dedication, talent and teamwork of our management team and staff. As we continue to grow at a rapid pace, our people and the quality of our client service will remain the cornerstone of LSI's success."

Mr. Angrick has been responsible for leading LSI's strategy and ongoing development since inception, including expanding the Company from initial start-up to profitability with over $76 million of annual sales. LSI has recently received numerous awards including Entrepreneur's 2005 Hot 100 (#4), Washington Business Journal 100 Largest Private Companies, and Government Solutions Center Pioneer Award 2005.

The Greater Washington Area winners will be eligible for consideration for the Entrepreneur Of The Year 2005 national program. Winners in several national categories, as well as the overall national Ernst & Young Entrepreneur Of The Year, will be announced at the annual awards gala in Palm Springs, Calif. in November 2005.
