

Liquidity Services Receives Six-Month Contract Extension for U.S. Department of Defense Surplus Property Sales

February 17, 2015

WASHINGTON--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Feb. 17, 2015-- Liquidity Services, Inc. (NASDAQ:LQDT), a global solution provider in the reverse supply chain with the world's largest marketplace for business surplus, today announced that the Defense Logistics Agency (DLA) has awarded Liquidity Services a six-month contract extension plus three 30-day option periods, exercisable by the DLA, for its Surplus Contract. The contract performance period begins on February 14, 2015. During this period, the U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) will continue to use Liquidity Services as the primary sales channel for the disposition of surplus property.

Under the terms of the Surplus Contract extension, Liquidity Services manages the receipt, storage, marketing, and disposition of all usable non-rolling stock surplus personal property generated by DoD installations throughout the United States and its territories. All other terms, including pricing, remain consistent with the prior Surplus Contract. Assets are offered for sale through Liquidity Services' online auction marketplace, www.GovLiquidation.com, to a global buyer base.
